“ Though the pain you're feeling must seem unbearable, please remember that you are not alone. Psalms 46:1 says, "God is our refuge and strength, a help that is readily found in times of distress." Pray to Him for strength. Weep to Him when there are no words. Listen to what one of the poets of the Bible said at Psalms 56:8, "You keep track of my wandering. Do collect my tears in your skin bottle." You see, God understands your pain and He cares for you very much (1 Peter 5:7). And He will really help you get through this difficult time (Isaiah 41:10). And please, call on His name shown at Psalms 83:18.

“ I remember being little & sleeping with you every night. I remember all of the thunderstorms where the lightening lit up the night sky as we watched in awe. I remember and always will remember the fun, loving, caring, generous, strong and all around great mother I had. You & dad always did what had to be done to set me up for success, it worked. Please watch over me as I make you proud, can't wait to see you again. Love you mom

“ My condolences to the family... My most fondest memory is sitting next her watching Kenny and my nephew Andrew playing basketball and both of us screaming our heads off... And the many many arguments about the Raiders her love and passion for her team ran deep.. You will be deeply missed.. Heaven gained another Angel

“ My Dearest Debbie,

I want to thank you for sharing your life with me, you shared your loved with me unconditionally and selflessly and I am truly blessed to have had you beside me.

Your love for God was real and true, you carried that in your heart wherever you went. Your trust in God has earned you a place with the angels and your unquestionable faith has ensured that.

Thank you Debbie for our son Kenny, who has your kindness, generosity, love for others and your positive outlook on life. You and I are so proud of the young man he has become, with you looking out for him and guiding him his future will be bright as it can be.

I really miss you Debbie and I know that in time I will come to terms with this. I find some comfort in the fact that I have you watching over me, helping me along the way and that if I do trip up you will make sure I get a kick in the rear.

Lastly, I have thank you for being the loving wife you are, you are simply the greatest thing that has come into my life. You really just don't know how many people, friends or family, love you for just being YOU. You are full of love, you are tough, and you cared for all. I Love You Debbie!!!!

Love You With All My Heart,
Joe

“ In 1980, I wanted to impress a boy. (well, a couple of boys) I was going to do this by driving my truck. But, I didn't have a license...or know how to drive.

My parents were having a party that night, so they were distracted and when I said "Can I borrow the truck?" they said "Fine..just be home early"

Debbie had somewhere else to be that night, but first she drove all the way over to my house and "drove" my truck to the park, so I was "legal". She said her hellos to my parents, and her parents, and every other parent we knew, then we left.

I got caught. Of course. Debbie laughed at me for years about it. She did tell me it was a bad idea.
