“ Happy Birthday Apa, I miss you so much already. I know that you're no longer in pain and I'm sure that you are singing your heart out up there. I love you so much, thank you for everything you taught us.

“ No words can ever explain the pain I've had knowing you're gone. I remember waking up the next day, thinking it was just a bad dream but it wasn't. December 9th, 2016 is the day that all of your pain went away and I know you're watching over all of us. Growing up with an amazing Apa will always be a blessing, someone who always pushes his grandkids and kids to do the best things in life. I will never forget the amazing moments we have spend together, I will never forget every morning you would make me dance with you. Happy birthday Apa, you will forever be in my heart. Thank you so much for taking care of me, thank you for all of your amazing stories, thank you for your voice and your laugh that always brighten up my day. But, most importantly thank you for loving me unconditionally. I love you so much and I miss you more than anything.
