“ Marjorie and I met at Dillard's Dept. Store as co-workers. Her friendliness and upbeat personality sealed our friendship almost twenty years ago.. We had many good times walking, shopping, talking on the phone and exchanging ideas. Marjorie had many artistic talents and worked on several projects simultaneously. She owned a successful framing shop in Alabama for a time. She loved her girls and grandchildren. I will always remember the day she packed up everything in a truck and drove herself across country to Arizona to be with one of her daughter's and her family. This shows Marjorie's independence and courage - very admirable traits. She needed those qualities as she faced a myriad of health issues during her life. She would never really let you know the extent of the health issue she was having and always was positive. Her love for Jesus & the church kept her going. Her love of her grandchildren was evident. She definitely earned the name Cookie Grandma.. Marjorie was loved and respected by many. She will be missed and I was blessed to be her friend. Thank you Marjorie for so many thoughtful things you did for people and you made the world a better place. May you rest in peace...

“ I first met Cookie Grandma when her granddaughter was in kindergarten! Marjorie told me to also call her cookie grandma since I was Maddi's teacher. She loved to volunteer and spread the word of God! She was such a talented and innovative person who would do anything for anybody! There is another Angel in heaven! God Bless

“ Marjorie was a treasured friend. She was loyal to those she held most dear to her heart. She loved being “Cookie Grandmother!”She was happiest when her family and close friends were near. She was one of the most creative people I have ever met. I have been the beneficiary of many of those creative outlets. I have hand made items from Margie that are exceptionally beautiful, but that was Margie's heart, she wanted to share her gifts

She loved her Jesus.

Margie had many struggles but that infectious laugh covered many a weary and troublesome night. She loved the bling and if she had had the money she would have dressed and bejeweled herself more extravagantly than she did. I never figured out how she stretched a dime so far!

Margie will be missed, Rest In Peace, dear friend!
