“ I am so sorry for your loss. It breaks our heart when death separates us from the ones we love so much. The bible reminds us that soon, "death will be swallowed up forever." (Isaiah 25:8) He will heal our broken hearts by resurrecting our precious loved ones to life again. (John 6:40) I hope your beautiful memories of Shirley Ann and these promises from God comfort you in the days to come.

“ Shirley had a smile that could light a room, a laugh that could warm a heart. She brimmed with love, joy and excitement for life, but most of all for God.

My earliest memory of her was when she came to my school to talk about the USA. Sitting in the auditorium that day, I beamed with joy, that this lovely lady had come to our country and to our church.

She loved young people. And it was an absolute joy and privilege to know her and attend church with her and her family - Jim, John, Peggy, Chrissy and Glenn, to be in their home and to share life's joys and trials with them.

Shirley was greatly loved and will equally greatly missed. She was an enormous blessing to me, the young people of Dominion Road church and countless others.

“ I will always remember Shirley and Jim and the Roe family, as wonderful Christians who were wonderful role models of kindness, hospitality and love. Shirley touched our lives. Our deep condolences to the family in their bereavement. May God grant you courage and strength in this hour of bereavement and in the happy memories of a wonderful and loyal mother.

With Christian love,

“ My husband and I moved to New Zealand in 1978. Shirley and Jim Toe and their family were among the first to make us welcome. The doors to their home were always open to friends, and we found a warm fellowship which led to a firm friendship. It was hard to find Mexican or Latino food in those days, and Shirley liked to make it herself. Jim liked his salsa HOT (please note the capital letters), and she made the best. Our daughters stayed with their kids from time to time, and our families became very close. Shirley was a wonderful Christian lady, who lived out her faith. We send our love and prayers to Peggy, Chrissy and Glenn in the loss of their wonderful mother, who was a special friend. May the Lord Himself give your comfort in your sorrow, in the knowledge that she has reached Heaven and Home. With love,
